5. FOOD & DRINK

- Dining Around Sagan

Yogyakarta is well known for its vibrant food culture, and Sagan is one of the city's most popular dining areas. You can easily find a wide variety of food throughout the day, from traditional Indonesian dishes and local street food to cafés, coffee shops, and international restaurants.

Many breakfast stalls and coffee shops open as early as 6:00 AM, while most restaurants and cafés operate from 10:00 AM to 10:00 PM. Several convenience stores and local eateries are open 24 hours, making it easy to find food at any time.

In the evening, Sagan becomes even livelier, with many people gathering to enjoy local specialties, cafés, and street food vendors. Nearby areas such as Kotabaru, Terban, and Malioboro also offer a wide range of dining options, from budget-friendly meals to fine dining experiences.

A typical meal at a local restaurant or food stall costs around IDR 25,000–80,000, while dining at cafés or international restaurants generally ranges from IDR 80,000–200,000 per person.
